Reflections on Teshuvah, as we watch
The Jazz Singer

Movie begins at 8:30 pm with Selichot following

Start the holidays with reflection on Teshuvah as we watch the 1927 film, "The Jazz Singer", starring Al Jolson. The film features the story of a Chazzan's son, who leaves his family home to become a popular singer. He wrestles with the conflict between his desire to achieve at his secular profession and the equally intense pull of his heritage and family, particularly as the High Holidays approach.
